

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

The Parochial Church Council (PCC) of Holy Trinity Westcott

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The PCC of Holy Trinity Westcott is the data controller (contact details below). This means the PCC decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The PCC complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes:

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our objects, which are registered with the Charity Commission;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services running at Holy Trinity;
- To contact you via surveys to conduct research about your opinions of current services or potential new services that may be offered;
- To provide you with services that you have requested;
- To share your contact details with the Diocesan office so they can keep you informed about news in the Diocese and events, activities and services that will be occurring in the Diocese which are relevant to a role that you are undertaking.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Consent of the data subject;
- Processing is necessary for the legitimate interests of the Data Controller or a third party, except where such interests are over-riden by the interests, rights or freedoms of the data subject;
- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation;
- Processing is necessary for the performance of a contract with you or to take steps to enter into a contract (to provide a service to you that you have requested or to receive a service from you that you wish to provide).

Where data is sensitive one of the following will also be used:

- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim provided:
 - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
 - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent;

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities, surveys and services, process your gift aid donations, keep you informed about diocesan events or provide you with services that you have requested.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of the church in order to carry out a service to you or other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will only share your data with third parties outside the parish with your consent unless legally obliged to do so.

6. How long do we keep your personal data¹?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide “Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records” which is available from the Church of England website [see footnote for link].

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the “GDPR”, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the PCC holds about you;
- The right to request that the PCC corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the PCC to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time;
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable) [Only applies where the processing is based on consent or is necessary for the performance of a contract with the data subject and in either case the data controller processes the data by automated means];
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable) [Only applies where processing is based on legitimate interests (or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority); direct marketing and processing for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics];
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

9. Contact Details
